

Forestry Stewardship – Green Tips

Comparative Matrix of Forest Certification Schemes

The On-Line Comparative Matrix of Forest Certification Schemes aims to provide reliable advice to customers and companies involved in the paper and wood products trade on the credibility of individual forest certification schemes and the labels issued under these schemes. The website provides a set of tools for anyone that wishes to compare these schemes. The website is not affiliated to any forest certification scheme and has been developed by an independent consultant commissioned by CEPI.

<http://www.forestrycertification.info/>

Forest Certification Resource Center

The Forest Certification Resource Center search tool enables users access to a database of more than *800 certified forests throughout the world, and more than 4,500 certified locations supplying wood and paper products. Buyers can make more informed purchasing decisions by searching for companies based on location, certification system, company type or other specific product information.

*Please note this tool includes Forest Stewardship Council certified forests and products as well as other certifications.

<http://www.metafore.org/?s=147>

Northwest Natural Resources Group

The Northwest Natural Resource Group (NNRG) is a non-profit organization committed to promoting innovative forest management strategies that support the health of forest and freshwater ecosystems while enhancing economic development in Pacific Northwest communities. NNRG's Northwest Certified Forestry (NCF) program is organized around the goal of providing landowners that are committed to sustainable forest management with cost-effective access to Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) certification and a number of complementary services including market and supply chain development, member advocacy, educational workshops and information services.

<http://www.nnrg.org>

Greenbelt Consulting Website Links

Links to articles about forest ecosystems and protection

<http://www.greenbeltconsulting.com/articles.html>