

Local Sustainability Groups - Green Links

Clallam County

Beachwatchers - WSU <http://www.beachwatchers.wsu.edu/clallam/>

Friends of the Fields <http://www.friendsofthefields.org>

Working to preserve and protect sustainable agriculture in Clallam County, Washington, ensuring the availability of local food and the quality of life that our rural setting provides.

North Olympic Land Trust <http://www.nolt.org>

Northwest Earth Institute Study Group

Donovan Wilkin

wilkin@olympus.net

Port Angeles Locally Grown Mercantile <http://pa.locallygrown.net>

On-line mercantile to connect and deliver local produce and products to consumers

Sequim's LAST (Local Action for a Sustainable Tomorrow) <http://relocalize.net/groups/sequim>

Sequim Locally Grown Mercantile <http://sequim.locallygrown.net>

On-line mercantile to connect and deliver local produce and products to consumers

Streamkeepers of Clallam County <http://www.clallam.net/streamkeepers/>

Sustainable Peninsula <http://www.sustainablepeninsula.org/>

A newly formed group of citizens and organizations interested in moving towards a sustainable North Olympic Peninsula

Jefferson County

Jefferson County Climate Action Committee <http://www.jeffersonCAN.org>

A new website full of resources for Jefferson County that gives you the tools you need to save energy, save money, and reduce your carbon (CO2) footprint - at home, at work, and on the road. Get instant access to:

Jefferson County Local 20/20 <http://www.l2020.org> goal of promoting the integration of economy, ecology and community through public education

LION Local Investing Opportunities Network

<http://www.l2020.org/index.php?page=investing-opportunities>

LION creates opportunities for local individuals and businesses to connect with local investors to build prosperous local businesses, keep investing money in our community, and help build a more resilient and sustainable economy in Jefferson County.